Datebook: Just Beachy

Through 6/7 • As her creative alter ego, Flatchestedmama, Amy-Ellen Trefsgger has been creating witty performance art in Seattle since the turn of this century. Last year, for example, she performed Monochromatic May, in which she wore only gray clothing every day/night for a full month. Perhaps that's why Grey Gallery & Lounge was drawn to her. Trefsgger's Urban Beach Scenes series at Grey Gallery features her standing in full beach regalia—including flippers and water wings—amid urban landscapes, such as the New York City subway, an empty warehouse and on stadium stairs. As always, Flatchestedmama fully embraces deadpan humor—and this time, a beach ball, too. Beware of sharks and speeding taxi cabs. Hours vary. Free. Grey Gallery & Lounge, 1512 11th Ave.; 206.325.5204; greycastleandlounge.com.
